

Biography

Candice Kramer, was born in 1974 in the city of Johannesburg. She is a mother of three and works full-time as an artist.

Education

Candice Kramer holds a BA in Fine Arts from the University of the Witwatersrand.

Exhibition History

Candice Kramer's first solo shows in Johannesburg were held at Obert Contemporary and NIROX projects respectively. Kramer's work has been acquired by both private and corporate collections including Spier, Nandos, RMB and First Rand and South African Workers Museum. Kramer was selected to be on the emerging painters show at the Turbine Art Fair (TAF) in 2017 curated by Jessica Webster. Kramer was also selected by RMB as one of ten artists to participate in the 2018 RMB Winex event. In 2020 Kramer held her third solo exhibition with Kalashnilovv Gallery.

Achievements

Candice was a top 30 finalist for the SA TAXI art competition in 2017. Candice won the Multi & New Media Category Award of the Thami Mnyele Fine Arts Awards in 2018, and she was a recipient of Lizamore and Associates Mentorship award for 2019.